25X1 1. At the end of June 1952 the water police (Wasserschutzpolizei) made a survey of all the buildings, mostly summer houses and villas, located 25X1 on the southeast edge of the Dämritzer See in the Soviet Zone area between Neuseeland and Erkner. Floor plans and blue prints of each 25X1 property were systematically made by the police who appeared to be making an estimate of housing potential in this area.

2. Residents of this area believe that the water police may in the near future order the area to be cleared on short notice of all inhabitants.
